

The UK Brain Injury Symposium

Joint NACCS and SBNS Meeting
Royal Geographical Society, London
6th December 2019

Provisional Programme

Controversies and Challenges in Prehospital Care of Brain Injured Patients

Anne Weaver (TBC), Consultant in Emergency Medicine and Pre-Hospital Care, Clinical Director for Trauma, Royal London Hospital, London

Concussion and Biomarkers

Tony Belli, Professor of Trauma Neurosurgery, University of Birmingham

Pathological Processes Relating to Vasospasm

Ian Galea, Associate Professor in Experimental Neurology, University of Southampton

What's New in Traumatic Brain Injury Research?

Jonathan Cole, Consultant in Neurocritical Care and Neuroanaesthesia, University of Cambridge

Mechanical Thrombectomy: The story so far.

Anthony Rudd, Professor of Stroke Medicine Kings College Hospital, London and previous National Clinical Director for Stroke, NHS England and NHS Improvement.

Optimal Pathway for the Management of Non-Traumatic Subarachnoid and Intracranial Haemorrhage. Neurosciences Improvement NHS England

Daniel Walsh, Consultant Neurosurgeon, King's College Hospital, London

Brain Tissue Oxygen levels – should we be measuring them in SAH?

Sylvia Bele, Head of Neurosurgical ICU, University Hospital Regensburg, Germany

Neurosurgical Trauma

TBC

Management of Devastating Brain Injury after Hospital Admission – The Moral Balance

Dan Harvey, Consultant in Intensive Care Medicine, Nottingham University

How to stay Healthy in Trauma Medicine

Peter Brindley, Consultant in Intensive Care Medicine, University of Alberta

Communication and End of Life Management

TBC